

Recall

Bring back patients or clients you haven't seen in a while.

"Hello, this is St. Louis Medical calling to let you know that it has been a year since we last saw you...."

Key features of Recall:

The possibilities are limitless: any situation where you regularly send out postcards or letters is a good opportunity to use Recall.

Caller ID of your business or practice displays on client's phones greatly increasing the number of answered calls.

Less than half the cost of a postage stamp using Recall.

Make these calls at regular, pre-determined intervals or set up to launch calls whenever you need them.

Customize the message to meet your needs at any time.

Recorded messages can be in your own voice, and you can easily change what the message says at any time.

"I just wanted to tell you that we have been with Talksoft since November and have been very happy with their service. We have also attested for Meaningful Use on May 9, 2011...."
