

Focus on your core competency and utilize Talksoft for messaging.

Partner with Talksoft and benefit from our communication expertise.

Why partner with Talksoft?

Expertise. Talksoft has been perfecting its messaging service for more than a decade. It is easily adopted, yet complex and costly to develop and maintain in-house. Because it is our core competency, integrating with Talksoft creates a ready-made strategic tool to offer your clients.

Meaningful Use. Talksoft services can enable your software to meet Meaningful Use measures that require a messaging component.

Simple Integration. Choose from varying levels of integration to fit your needs. Our flexible API can seamlessly integrate with your system as Talksoft engineers facilitate the process.

Full Support. Talksoft's data centers offer full redundancy and high availability. Our partner and customer testimonials reflect that our live support is one of our differentiators.

Revenue Stream. Talksoft pays for referrals. In addition to adding a quality feature to your services, you will share in the earnings.

“ Our relationship with Talksoft is tremendous! They are so good and easy to work with and so responsive – they have literally become an extension of our company. ”
